

TECHIE TRENDY

The latest in tech-friendly fashion

by Ilissa Knisley

DRESS UP YOUR iPad!

A few short months ago we could hardly conceive of a device like the iPad, and yet it's here. Owning one means you've made an investment—one we bet you're interested in protecting! Thankfully, there are tons of iPad cases on the market right now, but we've taken the liberty of finding a few favorites in every style...this issue's Techie Trendy is all about iPad, and we know you'll find a case you love!

Hard Candy Bubble Sleeve

hardcandycases.com | $49.95

Hard Candy's Bubble Sleeve gets a MacTribE Editor's Choice for uniqueness: interior rubber bumpers keep your iPad in place while molded bubbles make the outside impossible to miss. The pink goes with everything, in our opinion!

Cocoon Harlem

cocooninnovations.com | $54.99

If sporty is more your style, look for the Cocoon Harlem—its cross chest sling makes it ultra-portable and the padded interior means you can skip a case entirely. This is a fantastic choice if you're always on the go.

Zagg Skins

zagg.com | $19.99 and up

Zagg Skins are the ultimate in fun: they combine their award winning Invisible Shield toughness with graphic art. Choose for tons or upload your own photos for a completely unique cover! If you'd rather clear protection from the award winning company, go with the famous invisibleSHIELD: it's the perfect screen protector.
